ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It's been a lot of high and low to finish this thesis. My exposure toward World Heritage Sites gave me the idea to make my final work for my bachelor degree. The original idea was also developing the more I read and asked some experts opinion (it's more about criticism on my naivety, to be honest).

Fortunately, I have not been alone throughout those hard time, and I would like to thank some person who had helped to make this thesis doable.

I am thankful to H. Andi Purwono S.IP., M.Si., Anna Yulia Hartati, S.IP., MA., and Adi Joko Purwanto, S.IP., MA., for their invaluable supervision of my work, who always clear my confusion on how to do this thesis.

Thank you to Dra. Hj. Ismiyatun, M.Si. and Mr. Sihab whose helped and encouraged me to meet my deadline.

Special thanks to Mrs. Veronica Rompis, first secretary of Permanent Delegation of Republic Indonesia to UNESCO, Drs. Yunus Arbi, head of Preservation at Department Of Culture and Tourism, Dr. Lorenz Graitl and Dewayu Anggi K. S., S.IP for their priceless input and fruitful discussion.

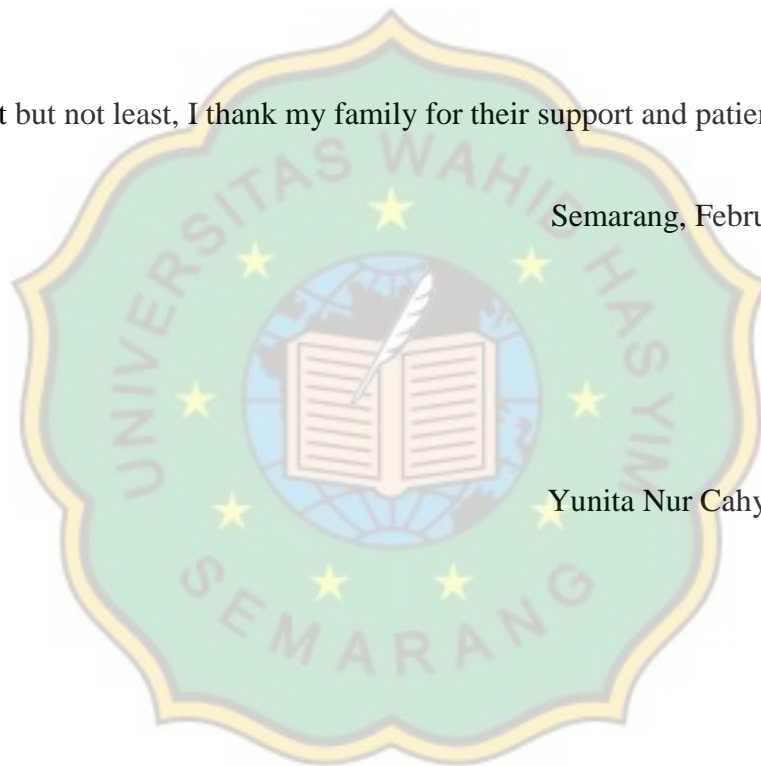

I am also greatly indebted to my best friends, Dewayu Anggi, Amelia Dita, Gita Tifani, Himatul Ulya, and Jene Pradana, thank you for always there for me and keep me sane. This process would have been so much more difficult without your supports.

Enormous thanks to the Dean of Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Agus Riyanto, S.IP., M.Si. and all the lecturers in both Department of International Relations and Department of Political Science, for the last seven years. Study in this awesome faculty is the best decision I've ever made.

And last but not least, I thank my family for their support and patience.

ABSTRACT

The Diplomacy of Indonesia in the World Heritage Committee 2015-

2017

The World Heritage Committee is a respective intergovernmental body with the noble aim to safeguard the world heritage sites based on the World heritage Convention. The election of Indonesia to be member of the Committee for the period of 2015-2019, gives Indonesia the opportunity to contribute to the only intergovernmental organization with the mandate to safeguard the world's most outstanding cultural and natural heritage. This study is aimed to analyze the diplomacy of Indonesia in the World Heritage Committee. The researcher used descriptive qualitative method through library research and document analysis.

This study started to explain how the effort of Indonesia to become the Committee member and continued the analysis on its effort regarding some issues such as to promote the integration of Agenda 2030 within the World Heritage Committee, to promote the more credible World Heritage Committee and regional issues.

The analysis showed that the effort of Indonesia was moderate, where on some issues, the diplomacy was effective and reached its objective and some other was rather weak and ineffective.

Key words: diplomacy, Indonesia, World Heritage Committee, the 1972 Convention
